

Andy Ruhl

2231 E. Florence Dr.

Tucson, AZ 85719

(520)882-5837

acruhl@gmail.com

<http://acruhl.freeshell.org/resume/>

Racer	Andy Ruhl, ASMA #17 (Arroyo Seco Motorcycle Association), CCS #TBA
Occupation	Software Engineer, IBM
Bike	2001 Ducati 996
Objective	Gain sponsorship for 2006 race season, promote the sport, promote my sponsors.
Experience/Results	Won first ASMA amateur race in 2002 after 3 attempts Decided to skip ASMA Amateur season for 2003, was allowed to go expert by Roger Heemsbergen, Arroyo Seco track owner and ASMA president Earned #6 expert numberplate after 2003 season Finished 6 th in Formula Arroyo, unlimited GP, 2003 season Finished 2 nd in 600 superbike expert, 2004 season Earned #5 expert numberplate after 2004 season Finished 5 th in Formula Arroyo, unlimited GP, 2004 season Finished 4 th in 600 superbike expert, 2004 season Won Team Sprints championship with co-rider Ivan Garza, 2003 season
2006 Goals	Race entire ASMA season, get a top 5 numberplate Race selected SMRI and CCS races in the region Improve myself as a rider, learn racecraft, achieve my highest potential as a rider
Current overall racing goal	Win CCS and/or ASMA Heavyweight Twins championship

